Dear editors

Thank you for referring the manuscript [analysis of factors that affect events and interventions of stunting through the e stunting android application]

My comments to authors :

Thank you for the authors for their efforts

1-Regrdng the abstract; methods and results are so deficient as well as the conclusion

also elaborate on E stunting application.

2-Methods: what was the intervention? authors have to show how did they make the intervention .Also please show the duration for intervention and how , when you studied its effect ?

3-what is the Parenting Model, explain in short and add reference

4-some editing and language errors as [and the synthesis of psingholipids]

Recommendation: Revisions Required

Reviewer B:

We appreciate your submission in OAMJMS. The authors did not explain about the software used in the study clearly. The current manuscript contains numerous errors in writing style and structure, we recommend to use proof reading before submission. Please revise refer to the attachment manuscript. Thank you.
